YES

Continue to Question #10

- Since the minor child is 14 or older, the child may nominate a guardian.
- So long as the court deems the nominated guardian appropriate and the guardianship in the child’s best interest, the nominated guardian shall be appointed.
- W. Va. Code §44-10-4 and W. Va. Rules of Minor Guardianship Procedures- Rule 6.
- There is a Law Help Nomination of Guardian form available.

10. Does the Petition allege that the child is abused or neglected?

- West Virginia Rules of Minor Guardianship Proceedings-Rule 13.
- Cases involving abuse and neglect will be remanded to the Circuit Court. Once the case is in the Circuit Court, it will remain there, in its entirety, indefinitely.
- Allegations of abuse and neglect must be proved by clear and convincing evidence.
- The WV Department of Health and Human Services (DHHR) will receive notice and become involved in the case.
- A temporary guardian may be appointed during the proceedings.
- Petitioners may become co-petitioners with DHHR on the abuse and neglect allegations.
- Abuse and Neglect proceedings are governed by The West Virginia Rules of Procedure for Abuse and Neglect. There is also an Abuse and Neglect Benchbook put out by the West Virginia Judiciary.

11. Does anyone other than the child's parent(s) and/or petitioners have custody or visitation rights with the child?

- Any person with court ordered custodial rights to the child must be served with the Petition for Guardian Appointment.
- W. Va. Rules of Minor Guardianship Proceedings-Rule 5.
